INTRODUCTION

The first two sections “Nadira” and “The Lion’s Gate” was written by the scribe for the book “When Angels Speak”, Donna Wolfe. The rest of this is the actual Channeling of Spirits in which the book “When Angels Speak” is base on.

NADIRA

Nadira is a member of The Brotherhood of White Light after the Order of Melchizedek. This order is composed of people now living on the earth plane, and a council of advisors who are not in physical form. Nadira is of the highest earthly level in this society.

In the spiritual realm, Nadira is referred to as Azi Azon, the Ancient. If you were to see Nadira you would smile at this title. She is quite a lovely woman who does not look at all like a person who should have such a strange name, nor is she ancient. She is incredibly wise, knowledgeable in the ways of spirit, very kind and loving.

Nadira was born with skin that glowed, according to her dear mother Jewell, who passed over a few years ago. Both Jewell and her mother, Goldie, were born with a caul. A caul is a veil-like covering over the crown of the head and is said to be an indication of one who will have spiritual protection and the gift of second sight. Jewell said that for eleven days after Nadira's birth, Nadira's skin radiated and strangers came to her door to see the baby with "magic skin".

Nadira's parents were very spiritual people who understood when she reported stories of her unseen friends and prophetic visions. The elders in the church they attended treated Nadira with respect when she spoke. At the age of three she was regarded as a prophetess. All of Nadira's life has been devoted to working for spirit. As you will read in the messages, Nadira is greatly loved and honored in the spiritual realm.

Nadira was taught at an early age to try the spirits. Without exception, all well meaning spirits first ask Nadira for permission to speak. If Nadira consents, then the spirit will announce his or her name and why he or she wishes to speak. All heavenly beings emanate profound love, great humility, and elegant manners.

Nadira bears the traits of a genuine prophetess. She is fully aware that she is an instrument for spirit. She claims no personal power, nor does she believe there is any power in divination tools such as tarot cards or crystal balls. When she is interpreting for spirit, the words she delivers come from spirit and not her own thoughts. She is compelled to repeat exactly what she hears. Her first duty is to God, and she works tirelessly on his behalf. Spirit gave Nadira the gift of channeling as a reward for the many personal sacrifices she has made for others.

Jahleel, Nadira's guardian, informed us that one of Nadira's tasks upon this earth is to complete a series of books titled "The Book of Spirits". The first book is subtitled The Lion's Gate. Future books will be subtitled "The Healing Grace" and "Angels Sing the Songs of Spirit". There will also be a book of seven mysteries from seven angels.

Nadira says there are no adequate words to describe what she sees and feels when she is in the company of a great spirit. We wish The Keepers of the Lion's Gate could impart these messages to you personally. Your heart would surely melt from the intensity and purity of their love.

THE LION'S GATE

On the eight day of the eight month of nineteen hundred and ninety-two, an energy corridor was established between heaven and Earth. This corridor was named "The Lions Gate" in honor of it's association with the star constellation Leo. This portal opened with streaks of lighting flashing down from the sky, and lightning bolts shooting up through the ground. It was a most extraordinary light show.

The Archangel Michael created "The Lion's Gate". The messages in this book are from spirits who called themselves "The Keepers of The Lion's Gate". These keepers are all spiritually evolved beings in the heavenly levels.

In addition to "The Lion's Gate", other portals were opened on the planet. The Angelic Host uses the light and energy of these corridors to transmit their messages to the people on Earth. Through these portals, divine messengers can walk upon the earth and comfort people in their times of pain and sorrow. Also, these gate keepers seek to administer to those in power whose hearts have been hardened in the governing of their countries.

There is a universal plan to awaken humanity and bring us to a higher spiritual evolution. Spirit is dependent upon us to choose, through our own free will, to make the changes that are necessary to save the planet. We have spiritual forces ready and willing to work for our growth and development. If this is not divine intervention, then it is certainly divine opportunity. Spirit offers us a life of love, peace, freedom and security; truly the Garden of Eden earth was meant to be. In return, we must open our hearts and souls to God, and to each other. We must all come together and unite as one with the Creator.

"The Lion's Gate" will close unless humanity makes the changes that are necessary for this light corridor to remain open. These changes are described in detail in this book. Dalia, my guardian angel, sends this brief message to us:

"The people fo the earth, at this time, must come to a decision. There will reign a great division on this planet between good and evil. There will be earth changes and perilous times yet to undertake. Those who have prevailed in darkness, and have chosen not to allow this darkness to be lifted, will be left behind. Those who have chosen the pathway of the Creator will be even more enlightened."

"All people on earth are born with the conscience of good and evil. All people on earth are born with free will. Light beings of energy and messengers from the spiritual world are here to help humankind. We wish to lift them from what we term 'the dead', for as they are in darkness, truly it is like a death."

RAPHAEL 05-06-95

Nadira

An energy coming forth. This is coming forth in great love, its huge beautiful rose colored light. It's almost curled on each side with light and in the middle is a kind of yellowish light within it. I believe this is Raphael's energy. It's come through before once.

Raphael

Words that are only words, words that have, are kept unto the self are only words. It is the power of the word that has been given unto the people, for their individual interpretation that has given forth great power of the word and has created great nations even so, even unto the Universe. It is far beyond this Universe of these dimensions that I come to you. Even though the fragment of my soul is of this Earth, for I AM Raphael and I come forth to enfold you in my wings of love and light so that I can once again bring forth to this planet a ray of hope. For there is much within the people's of this planet that have given up and have become solidified with materiality of this world. And it is not of this world that we are here. It is of this Earth and of the creation and of the Universe and of the elements and of the sky and the fire and the water of the love and the energies that are created from all of these great things. For I say to you that all great things and everything is good comes forth from our blessed Creator. For I have seen through man's eyes and I have lived in a physical body, for it was deemed necessary for me to do so. I have suffered greatly at the hands of others. But it opened up within me the being of creativity and compassion that was necessary for me to be able to blend with the energies of the Earth.

I wish to speak to you of the man's soul and of the elements of the soul and of the ether. For as each one comes forth from their own particular ether which is a fragment of their true ether, they are reborn upon this planet and come forth to overcome certain energies which were created from prior lifetimes and not from their ether of their origination. As they are born into a physical body, they are given fire and life within them. Which is an electrical force. For this electricity is part of the Universe and all of the Earth's domain. It is a creative force and not a destructive one as man kind would have it do so.

It is of this pattern of electricity and energy that also there is another energy that is of great significance to the Earth and unto those who are living upon the Earth. And it is called Rhythm. For within each person is the rhythm, the music of their soul. And each person emits this rhythm into the Universe. It is a rhythm that is in the harmony of the Earth's rhythm and the Earth's rhythm is in harmony of the Universal rhythm. It is each one must be in synchronized with the others. It is of this rhythm that many have lost their song and their music. And it has been through the negative mess of this earth and of the wrong doing.

For there have been great suffering to many souls upon this Earth and many have learned from it and have excepted the negativity as part of their learning processes and have gone on to become great in the eyes of Spirit. And others have given up. And it is of those that have given up that are lost within their own darkness, that I speak of this day. For they have given up their hope and I AM Rapheal, I have come to deem hope to those who feel that they are lost and have given up their light and their music that has been God's gifted. They have given this up because their own desires and lust were not fulfilled upon the Earth during their lifetime of present. It is not of this lifetime nor prior life, nor lives to come that they are here. They are here to sing their song and to live in harmony and overcome the negativities of their lust and desires. For they must elevate themselves from this level and go higher. It has caused great reflections with Spirit to see those who so easily given up their souls for that of gold, or given up their souls for that of vanity. and given up their souls for that of lust. For all these things are but a twinkling in the eye of the Universe. It has been given away so to speak, rather than live in the lives of the Spiritual and of the pathways that have been deemed necessary for them to follow. They have found it easier to seek adverse and lust. I am here to guide them, I am here for those who have seen that they have made the wrong decision and choices in life. I am here to redeem them, to give them that last chance so to speak if you will of redemption before their physical death. For there is death for the soul. The soul goes on and keeps it's patterns singing in harmony and returns back to the ether. It is only, only the heart breaking certainty of those who continually lifetime from lifetime who seek the negative and the adverse and the desires of lust that will reverse their wheel of life. And go from that of redemption to that of death. It is the reversal of the wheel that has brought mankind to their knees and have seen the destructions of civilizations. And have seen mankind go from being that of Spiritual to that of a wild beast foraging in the forest for it's food. It is only through this that I say the soul dies. For indeed it continues, but it will continue in a negative light.

We are here through the Spiritual domains to stop this from happening. And we are limited without energies to that of the desire of humankind to wish to make choices and changes in their life to rise above that dark seclusion of evil. And the dark seclusion aluminous of being one who is not walking the pathway of the Creator.

There is a light corridor, of which will come forth many light beings, many are here and have been here for eons. These are light beings who will traverse this Earth bringing knowledge and comfort to those of whom they contact. They are the comforters. And at times they are also the victims. They'll come forth upon the Earth a great transformation. There will be a division of light and dark. This will come in the future and is well knowledge by your interpreter. Of what we seek now, is the word. For as the word can reach many who are seeking, these seekers can help others to find their way from their own darkness. For no one who is in darkness is truly happy. For their reflection tells them so.

Nadira

I had a real hard time. It kept echoing and echoing. He's energy was coming through like this huge cave like it was filled with light and at first it looked like angel wings because they furled, I don't know any other word to use. And it was like a beautiful rose color. It looked like a huge angel wings. And then this beam of yellow light or like a beautiful butterfly, I don't know to explain it but anyway that's Raphael's energy as he came through but as he left it went through all kinds of changes of greens and purples and blues and it was just lofting. And the words were like echoing. I was have a real hard time keeping up with him. I felt I lost part of it. I don't know why I felt that way but I feel like I lost part of that translation. May be I turned my head the wrong way. What ever it is he'll come back and tell us later.

CHADEAU 05-06-95

Nadira

Seeing three bright lights. Their ruby in color. Now it's gone to green. It's very intense green that is coming though and I believe it's Chadeau.

Chadeau

Greetings, it is I Chadeau, and I come forth to you at this time from the seventh level in the rays of Lord Michael. I come forth to hold your bidding and speak to you words that will appear in the future that will bring enlightenment to those of human kind. To those people who have been distracted through their own daily living and in using their energies to keep with their daily living have quite forgotten in how to live in it's entirety for there are many of which I am speaking and this is clear to you, for you have seen many such, many of such human kind. But assuredly I say, I wish to speak to you this day of the children. And of the new souls that will be brought forth upon the Earth. For these are Star children and come forth through the light corridor with that of the Angelic Energies. They will be set apart and different from the other children. For these will possess within their souls that knowledge of which comes forth only from the Akashic. This is our hope and this is the future. For these children will denounce the darkness and will stamp it out if you will. For they will detatch that of negativity and that of the mailicious way of which the Earth's pattern and rythms are going. For it is such at this time that many of human kind are addicted and have changed their thought forms and their morality and have become depressed and lost through the own, their own degeneration of their Spirit. And if has been channeled through to them suchly so through the darkness of addictions in one form or another. It is sadness that I speak to you this day of, for in fact they have indeed mutated their genetic being in the human form and have lost one of their chromosomes and in the reproduction of the human body this is a very important chromosome. It will create in itself a new born child that is addicted also automatically with only the genetic makeup of it's addicted parents. This is an abomination unto the Lord and to the Creator of all the Universe which created all things perfect and new. And as these children have been born and mutated if you will. It is a gradual process as that mutant will bring forth another mutant and so on and so on, until the chromosomes are left in helpless situation. It is through the light corridor and the Angles of Light, the Star Children that I speak of that will be able to bring forth new life upon the planet and to balance this mutancy with that of the Angelic host. This is important for the future and in thirty years time from this date. For if this is not done so the Earth will surely perish similarly to that of what the terms Sodom and Gomora. For the genetic makeup and soulular makeup will be degenerative within thirty years time. It will allow the negative to overcome the positive and you will see a more violent vicious and morally decadent race than you have ever seen before. As you are now viewing this and seeing this even as we speak. It will become much worse in the future. So for the hope of this land and Earth these new embodiments will come forth and through the blending will come forth new soulular and genetic hope. It is through these children that I speak for I am the protector of those children and I have seen much sadness through the addictions of their parents and through the pain that have been afflicted upon these children. And I speak of these children that some are now within their twentieth year upon this planet. Some are now within their first year upon this planet. In their new incarnation. And I say that their parents and those that are surrounding them who those that they have chosen to bring, bring them forth into this world, have set idly by and watched them as a possession and did not declare nor glorify them in their abilities and in their perfections as they came forth upon this Earth. They did not see them as the souls that they truly are with the love unconditionally carried within them. The unconditional love that comes forth from the child comes forth directly from the Creator. It is dependant upon the parent to guide them and show them their ways. And truly I say to you that we from the Spiritual realm cry for these new born children and for those who have been punished during their lifetimes for merely being born again. I speak to the Earth at this time and to all human beings as they come forth. For only love can bond and bind this Earth together and save this planet. And for those who love and cast love out to the sea as a fisherman cast his net. Cast their love to the sea, to the masses of people that are there and uses their energies to bring forth people into their circle of love and friendship when they cast their own children aside I say that it is an abomination. For that same energy that they used towards others they can use to cultivate the seeds that they have planted upon this Earth. And they are here to guide their children, for guidance is so important. Even so, even if it is only to their fourth year. It will give them the fiber of their being that is essential for them to become strong and in oneness in the years ahead. I say to you and to all peoples of the Earth, to guard the children, to protect the children. For they will be the future and it is most necessary for the future to exist and in not the state of existence of which it is presently becoming. That of addictions and that of the, the war of the drug lord will come to an end with a flickering of the Creator's hand. These are the Karma of the Earth. These addictions and this negativity that has swept across this country have created the decadence of society, the decaying moral fiber and through the decadence of the moral fiber have become easily slipping into random sexual activities and from that have come great diseases which will anillate this planet if not that the people of this planet come together in their terms with the Creator and in what their purpose is upon this Earth and if not what the evil purpose is for that of the Creator. For it is not of their desires nor their loss nor of their greed that they should consider. They could, they must consider that of their responsibility to the future and to their own children. Last they be struck with barrenness. And the population will cease. I come forth to speak these words, not to confuse and not to cause fear in the hearts of man but rather to awaken the love that has been planted within their souls. I come forth to nuture that seed and to cultivate it and to allow love to produce the garden of Eden of which it is intended to be.

He's faded out. There was something else, but I lost it.

SUNDAR SING 05-13-95

Nadira

I'm seeing this chartreuse colored light. And it goes into kind of a goldish ??? goldish color and green. And then right in the middle of it a very cylinder blue light. It's vertical. I'm trying to get closer. There's all kinds of light beings here, either framed in an arch and there is like an alter also but their light beings within the alter.

Sundar Sing

Greetings! It is I Sundar. And I come forth to you at this time through the rays of the Pleiades and through the light beings of Lord Michael. It is through these energies, that I will come forth and speak my message to you this day. For I bring forth the light rays upon the Earth of truth and understanding. It is at this time the most imperative for the Earth's realization for truth in their being and understanding of their presence upon this Earth. And of in fact, their life and their life form as it has been created to emanate upon this Earth. It is through the radiance of the human soul that one may radiate upon another. And if looking back upon the histories of this planet and the civilizations that have come and gone before. It was always those of human kind who were able to bring up the growth of Spirit and truth and understanding and wisdom. And also human kind who would bring these same Spirits crashing down and thus it would end that civilization through it's own decadence. This has come and gone more times then perhaps we could count. But it has always been done so in the bringing up and the tearing down, through the knowledge and wisdom of human kind and in their words from one to another. For I say to you that there is great power within the words of mankind and these words in direct content and consciousness with fellow man can change indeed the consciousness of that person for what they thought was truth somehow becomes distorted and they can become shaken from their own understanding of what truth is indeed for there is something that mankind seeks further than truth and that is knowledge. For what they find to be true, they do not always find to be knowledgeable. And in searching for the acceptance of knowledge, they can easily distort the truth of what they feel is wisdom. We in the Spiritual realm think of as foolish. Where is fool hardy to seek wisdom and to seek knowledge and to seek truth when that of human kind is not within their own harmony of their own consciousness. For in truth, one must be in harmony in their mind, their intellect if you will, their body which is their physical encasement and their soul which is of the Devine. It is of the spark of the Devine that is used in great creations. And it is also used in the imaginations of mankind. For imagination is far greater than wisdom itself in certain circumstances. For it is through imagination that you have your power of imaging and of presence with GOD. For it was indeed through the imagination of the creator that all things were created. Without this necessary force and Spirit, these things of this Earth and of this Universe would never have existed. And it is also through this force that it is kinetic in nature and must be used. For if it is not used, it will surely die. For all things are on a kinetic basis within the Universe constantly moving, constantly at readiness for the calling from mankind or from the Creator. Or from the Creator's energy. It is of this imagination and of this imagery that I will speak to you directly of. For as you know, all things come from the Creator. And of the Universe there's great abundance. There is no beginning nor is there end to this abundance. It must be surely channeled to the Universe and asked for, or demanded for and it will truly come to those who are surely seeking. You must seek for this as one who is lost in the desert and desires their drops of water. For if you do not have this desire, then truly I say to you, you are not seeking hard enough. It is of this that I have spoken to you priorly, and I have come forth to remind you of this fact again. It is most essential in the days ahead as these messages that come forth to you from those of us in the spiritual realm must be desired. They must be utilized. They must be rendered in content. They must be cherished and radiated upon the planet. For there will be eyes that cannot see and ears that cannot hear, but also in contrast will be those, that handful, that are indeed seeking as one who is dying of thirst in the desert and they seek spirit diligently and they will use these messages and create the great formula for love, acceptance and peace upon this planet as it has been said from Michael. I speak to you this day, for there is nothing greater. And it is appropriate and I ask that you will accept my word and I ask this in great humbleness. For I have come forth to you even as your childhood years and I have watched you in your growth. And I say to you, as it has been reminded to you this day, that you are indeed the order of Melchizedek and all things are possible for you. You need ask. There are those upon this Earth who will be used to fulfill your wishes. And remember, that being you, of Azi Azon, you are without beginning and without end. Imagery is your power and your light.

Nadira

He's going out. That was Sundar. (He said he's been here before.) Sundar is one of my teachers. (He was talking to you.) Yes, he was talking to me. Where did he say he was coming from? (Melchizedek. He's coming from the Pleiades.) OK. So he's rebounding from the Pleiades? Last time I heard from Sundar, he was in India.

GABRIEL 05-13-95

Nadira

I see a big, huge square of green. It looks like it's up on the ceiling as I'm going through. It's some type of corridor or, oh it's coming down. It's real heavy. And the green represents healing. Its encompassed all of the tunnel right now with green. Kind of hard to believe.

Gabriel

I bid you, glad tidings as I come forth through the ether of Hebron at this time. I AM Gabriel and I have been selected to come forth and speak to you as this selection was made far before you were born. Reborn upon this planet. I come at this time to speak to you of the rays of Michael and the energies that are transmitted upon the Earth and all these energies I must say to you are being transmitted in a healing capacity. For every ray of the emissions of Michael comes forth in love and comes forth in righteousness and comes forth to break the darkness of the negativities that have been created upon the Earth. For thus, Michael comes forth to right the wrongs and to create justice for the Creator. It is I, Gabriel, who have selected to speak of the energies of the green ray and to speak of the healing capacities and healing abilities that have emitted forth from the ethers. It is most important for all mankind to realize that they have within them the great ability to rejuvenate and heal. And to work not only with their own personal energies but also with those of strangers to them. For these are strangers at this time and in prior times perhaps they were not. But at this time, in this given time frame it is now brought forth that this should be to the attention of those who are seeking. It is a process if you will in understanding. For it is not of the intellect that I speak of. It is not of the academic that I speak of. For it takes neither one of these things to heal. What is in it's capacity and the formula of healing is emitting the love energies and being in atonement one with the other. It is essential, to keep your mind body and soul in harmony. In this harmony creates the harmony of healing and understanding and also of absorbing another human kinds pain and emotion. It is very similar to that of the sponge as it absorbs and releases. It is most important to keep absorbing and keep releasing and there are those who have fears of doing so. But I say, that if they do not complete their task and to not feel the need of caring then surely they will dry within themselves similarly to that of the sponge. For it may dry and remain dormant for long periods of time only to be awakened in future dates for the absorption. There rings within each heart and soul a special melody, a special tuning, a special sound. There is created from this sound a rejuvenation of the body. This sound can be brought forth for the feeling by another person. For it will not be one that you hear human ears. It can be heard only through the heart and the solar plexus. It can be heard through the soul. It is through this atonement and alignment of the sounds that true healing appears. I speak not only of physical healing but of healing of the emotions and of the pain that man has suffered upon the Earth, Be it in this lifetime or in prior lives. Be it of Karmic nature or be it of soulular nature. It is always the sound that you search for and it is within this linking of beings that the sound can emit and come to harmony with the Earth sounds. For the Earth it self can contain it's own tune, it's own sound. It is through the sounds of the Earth for the magnetism that is needed and the sounds of the Universe. For all that is contained within the Universe creates its own sound. And all these things must be in resonate conformancy one with the other in harmony. Bringing forth this energy for one person to absorb to in actuality heal another person or in fact any living creature. It is simple, it is a thought form, it is a knowingness that comes from within. It can be utilized and channeled through certain forces. But I say to you, that these forces, if they are lacking in spiritual energies, these forces will not work. Similarly to that of crystals and also to that of all medical technology. For medical technology is lacking in the spiritual context. They can not hear the sound, feel the sound, or emit their own sound. It must have it's blending for the creation and the rejuvenation to begin. I am humble to you and I ask for forgiveness if I have confused you. But I say that this formula from the great mathematician has been giving in simplicity and is there for all mankind to follow. You must seek the pathway of understanding for your first step in your first light. And it is through this understanding that the second step will be an understanding of one self and of accepting one self and of being. For it is of a simple nature that we speak. And thusly, I said to you this is not only soul upon the Earth plane but in all rounds. Simplicity is perfection.

And he's going out.

He was doing something to my throat. Had this rose color, I thought it was a rose at first, know it was rose color and then it looked kind a like a rag. He just put right in there.

It feels real weird. Kind a hard to breath. I can breath but it's like I'm not getting enough air. I don't know why. Must of had something in there that I needed. I don't know or he needed to open up my throat chakra for the changeling. It was that rose color love, that rosy, that dark rosy, not red, but that signifies love and of course that is the healer. Love is the healer.

GABRIEL 05-15-95

Nadira

As soon as I close my eyes I'm seeing that big green square again that I saw the other day. There it is. Now it's turned rose, that rose color. And it is floating right down over the top of me. I keep seeing burst of green coming forth from it. I'm waiting now, it feels like Gabriel's energy in.

Gabriel

Ye, it is I, Gabriel and I come forth to you once again to speak the word. And the word I wish to speak of this day is called healing. For it is in our prior message of healing that I will extend this energy. It will go on further, for many more messages are yet to come. It is of the healing that I speak of now of oneness from one of mankind and all creatures upon the Earth in oneness with the Earth's harmony and in oneness with Spiritual harmony and in Universal harmony. This is cause and effect and it is the basis of all that is created within the universes. As there are far greater universes than what we are speaking from this day. There is the intensity and the endlessness of not seeing a beginning or an ending of it. For there many life forms from other planets and it is ludicrous for mankind to think of themselves as the only creation. For there are many. And each one is dependant upon the other, as mankind, each one is dependant upon the responsibilities and love and respect of the other. So also is one planet dependant upon another planet and so on and so on. As one star that falls from the sky is not left unnoted. For in all perpetual harmony of this universes that I speak, if one is left undone and let go of and releases it's self from the others, it creates an imbalance of this universal perfection. It is through this and these energies that I speak of that it is most imperative for mankind to look upon this Earth as it's living creature and also to look upon all living creatures as co-inhabitants and not as a predator and not as game to be hunted. Not as food and not as fuel for fire. For every living thing upon this planet at this time is now living endangered and is endangered. It is even from the smallest blade of grass that grows within the lakes and from the smallest creature that inhabits the oceans and from the largest creatures that inhabits the continents. Each one is dependant upon the other in the spectrum of the lifecycles that are already predestined by the Creator. And it is indeed sad that mankind has affected the balance of their life cycles. And in their affecting of the life cycles of these living creatures, even though it is through mankind own ignorance or ego, it has been done. And it must be undone and it must be cultivated and cleansed.

And what is left to save, for there will not be re-compensation for the future. This will not happen. There will be obviation of the living spectrums of cycles. There be rejuvenation that had taken place in prior times will cease to exist. For through the pollution it has lowered the life cycles and chromosomes and hormones of all living things. When it has reached a certain level there will be no rejuvenation. What you term as endangered species is yourself.

I prayed today that you will accept my gift to you this day. For I have implanted within your heart chakra and throat chakra a potion of the Akashic records. This will give you knowledge for prior times and future times. As you will collect information from prior civilizations and from future civilizations if there are one. If they are one. God's blessing and reassurance for I am with you.

Nadira

When he went out, he was talking about future civilizations. If they are one. It sounds confusing, but what I felt, was if they (mankind) are one with the universe, one with planet, if they are one. If they are in harmony there will be a civilization. If not we're going to cease. We're not going to rejuvenate, it's not going to be rejuvenated. He didn't say it that way, but I absorbed that.

CHADEAU 05-18-95

Chadeau

Yea, it is I, Chadeau. I am here to glorify the Creator and his works. I come forth now with a message for the young children who are here upon the Earth. Still my words will ring true to each of you.

I beseech you to not give up hope for yourselves or for the future of this planet. Inside each of you beats the heart of this Earth. Within each of you, you have felt the pain and sorrow of your Mother Earth as she was girdled with contamination and the stresses of greed and evil. You have felt her vibration as she cries out for compassion and love. It has affected all of you.

I say that all of you have been brought forth to this planet with a seed from the Creator's garden. That seed is named hope. Never give up hope. The journey that lies before you was not your own making, but was placed here by the laxness of generations that came before you. I understand the anger you have within you, and I am here to give you comfort.

If only you could see me, you would see me enfold you in the love of my wings and cleanse you from all suffering and sorrow. I say, I surely would, but it is not within my empowerment.

Earth is a place of preparation, and you must confront the evil of this world. First you must recognize it, and at every turn of your head you will be able to do so. Realize that evil is patient. It waits for the opportune time to strike, such as when you feel your life has no meaning.

When you feel that all is lost and you have been emotionally abandoned by family and friends, do not be discouraged. When people point their fingers and say you look or dress strangely, that you cannot achieve, do not be discouraged. Show your accusers love and happiness. Know that you are special to all of us in the spirit world, and especially so to the Creator. You are great and wonderful. You are the future.

Unite together to save your homeland, the Earth. Save the air and the water. Know that no one else can do this save for your grace. These are your works. And you are here to conquer evil. I beseech you; do not give up your spirit to the dark side. It will make itself readily available to you with quick gratification of your material needs. Listen carefully to me. I say that these are the last days of this Earth. The end is coming soon.

All that can save this Earth is you, the children. You are the future, the master gardeners. Sow seeds now of love, faith, and hope. Allow the fruits of charity to become your harvest. Begin your seeds within your family and forgive your parents. They are but children who have grown older. They are suffering from their own pain and the stresses of living. You will see many changes as the Word becomes clear.

Blessings of love upon you, for we are proud. Our smiles shine brightly for each of you. Each one of you is a flower in the Master's bouquet.

I say that I am with you. I was with you in the beginning, and I will be with you always. There is not one cry that goes out in the darkness that is not heard. There is not one tear that drops from your eyes to the Earth that is not felt by my heart. I enfold you with love. Create your love. Radiate your love. Share it freely. Let the earth blossom once more. Shelah.

Nadira

There's a lot of confusion here. It's swirling, I shouldn't say confusion it's just swirling up colors. It looks like the cosmos or something. O.K., It's starting to slow down now. Lot's of golds and browns are coming through and yellow.

Uriel

Greetings, it is I Uriel. And I come forth to you at this time from the fifth ray of Michael. My energies are coming forth from the centerness of the Earth and I ask permission from you to speak with the word. I am most thankful and humble that you have accepted me and I speak now to you of the mysteries of the Earth. For many have incarnated their souls upon this Earth with no recollection of prior time within the Ether. Many have not learned as they have journeyed here. Many are very young in Spirit. But there are those that have journeyed here and walked upon this Earth many lifetimes and have collected fragments of their souls and have collected the wisdom which has completed their circle as to date. These who carry the light of wisdom are those that I am addressing this day. For there will be others that will hear my words but will not understand them.

For I speak to you of the Earth as that of a living breathing entity. It is Spiritual in nature but yet material in the material sense that it has density and is real before your eyes as is with the custom with human kind. You must touch and feel to believe. But I must say that much of this great Spiritual being that is called Earth has been greatly abused. For there have been as it has said before, many civilizations that you will never know of. For they have been and gone so long ago. And they are hidden so deeply their remains within the Earth that it will never surface within thousands of lifetimes to come. As I speak to you of this, you must realize that within each soul that walked upon this Earth, they came forth with their own Karmic energies, their positiveness and their negativity's, their love and their hate. And as it is not uncommon for man, their wars. There have been many who have fallen by the swords of their own devices. And in the falling of these, and in the story of how it came to be, there was much Karma which had developed. This Karma is hidden deeply within the Earth and the Earth itself is a Karmic body. There is from this Karma the negativity's as I have said as civilizations from the beginning. For do not be so innocent as to think that mankind derived from two people. This is a parable from the Creator. This is the legend of your generations. But I say that these generations are but a blinking of the eye to Spirit. For there have been civilizations far before that of your known Mesopotamia. There had been far higher more knowledgeable generations and civilizations before your valley of the Hindus. All this is as a baby to that of Spirit. For the Karma that has been derived and contained within this Earth had contained millions of civilizations that have come and gone. This is the evolution of the Earth. It was necessary for the Earth to come to the vibration of good and evil that it has come to this day.

What I speak to you of to clarify on the mysteries of Karma, that it is contained within the Earth. It must be released from the Earth. For there is another body of the Earth which is important for you to understand. It is not one that you can touch and feel. It is one that you may only sense and that is called Causal. For of the Universe, it is created through the positive and the negative forces, the clap of the Creators hand. And all of the principles of the universe and of the Earth containing within it are cause and effect. That of the karma, and as the karma releases, it contains electricity. This is referred to as the electrical layer around the Earth. It is within and without. Humankind has touched upon it. As a child who licks their finger and places their mark upon a window, for there is much that humankind does not understand. They have tapped within this electrical layer and it has disturbed the karma. This does not mean that it will cause tribulation, but it does affect the balance. The causal body, that of which you cannot see, accepts the electricity and filters it out to the universe slowly, diligently and in perfect harmony with that of the Earth's body. It is now time for mankind and their technology to understand cause and effect, for as you develop in your technology, there will be effects from it. The effects from this will upset the balance of what is termed the ozone, as it has already been done. It will affect the radiation through emitting from the universe and the sun onto the Earth plane. This will cause great harm to the Earth and also to the inhabitants, as it will break down the cellular structure of living creatures in bodily forms and also the cellular structures of vegetation. It will affect the mountainous regions which create the pure waters. It will affect the oceans, and as I speak to you, many of you will already be aware of this. These effects have already taken into place and we cannot turn back the hands of time. But mankind can certainly change what time is left into diligence of paying homage to their home. For without it, there will be no other. Mankind must come into terms with their karma and to their cause and to their effect upon this planet. And they must, above all else, rise above their greed and stop with the rampant raping of the Earth's body. I am here to pacify this electrical field at this time. There are four angels: one on each polarity, that will create the balance that is needed until these things can be amended. But I say to you, that when the seals are broken of mystery, we can no longer hold our fortresses here, for we will be called upon to leave. And as these seals are broken one by one, this is the devastation that will come. For there will be afflictions upon you, for you are existing within cause and effect. You must change the causes and you must change the effects. You have within your power and grasp the technology. It is only through greed that it has not been used and utilized in times prior. It is through greed of the ignorance of those who hold the power of oil in their hands, for know they not that all will be gone. And that which they are seeking in a monetary basis will no longer exist. You with your greed and your oil, and you with the lust for power, must now lust in different avenues. Go toward that of the soulless energies and harness them. For they will not cause disruption of the electrical field and they will not cause tribulation and disease and mutancy and death to all of you and your planet. We from the spiritual realm are working diligently to save you. Do you not want to be saved? Do you not want a future? It is important decisions, for it faces you now. Do you not know who you are? Have you forgotten from whence you came from the ethereal body of the Creator to come here? Have your souls gone on so long that you have forgotten? I will refresh your memory, for you have come here from the ethereal body of the Creator to save this planet, to give of love and overcome hate, to give of cause and overcome karma and create the heaven that it was intended to be. You have taken this heaven and created your own hell. And I say that with the curse of time, it will not be much longer. The days are numbered. And only the Creator and the wisdom of the Creator knows the hour, for we know not. But through this channel, I will tell you, it will be soon. For I AM Uriel. I AM the light and I come forth on the fifth ray of Michael. Not to beseech you, not to plead with you, not to ask of you to rise above your immoralities, your sinfulness, your greed and your lust. I say if you do not, the division is coming. There will come a darkness upon this land and the ocean will rise up and die. The moon will become like blood. Your water will be gone. Good health will not be known. You'll be wretched and you'll have done it to yourself. These words I speak to you. I speak to you in truth. For I do not wish for this to happen. Remember who you are, where you originated from. Overcome your desires and think only of one goal -- and that is to cleanse and ask forgiveness to this Earth and to the Creator for all of you were made perfect in the sight of the Divine One.

Nadira

He's gone.

CHADEAU 05-29-95

Chadeau:

Greetings. It is I, Chadeau. I come forth from the seventh heavenly level, and the rays of Lord Michael. I come to hold your bidding and speak to you words that will appear in the future. These words will bring enlightenment to humankind.

I speak of those people who have been distracted through their own day-to-day activities. In using their energies to keep with their daily living, they have quite forgotten how to live life in it's entirety. There are many of whom I am speaking, and this is clear to you. You have seen such humankind.

Assuredly, I say I wish also to speak of the children, and the new souls that will be brought forth upon the Earth. These new souls are Star children. They will come forth through the light corridor bearing with them angelic energies. They will be set apart from the other children. They will be different. They will possess knowledge from the Akashic within their souls. They are our hope and they are the future. These children will denounce the darkness and stamp it out, if you will. They will detest negativity and the malicious way in which the Earth's patterns are going.

At this time many people are addicted. They have changed their thought forms and their morality. They have become depressed and lost through the degeneration of their spirits. This condition has been caused by the darkness of addictions, in one form or another.

I speak now with great sadness. These people have indeed mutated their genetic beings. They have lost one of their chromosomes. In the reproduction of the human body this is a very serious matter. They will create a newborn child that is automatically addicted, having only the genetic makeup of its addicted parents.

This is an abomination onto the Lord of the Universe who created all things perfect and new. As these children are born mutated, in a gradual process, that mutant will bring forth another mutant, and so on until the chromosomes are left in a helpless situation.

Through the light corridor the angels of light, the Star Children, we will be able to bring forth new life upon the planet. The Angelic Host will combine with the addicted ones to balance the mutation. This is important for the future.

If this is not done the Earth will surely perish, similarly to Sodom and Gomorrah. If this is not done, in thirty years time the genetic and soulular make-up of humankind will have degenerated, thus allowing the negative to overcome the positive. You will see a more violent, vicious, and morally decadent race than you have ever seen before. Even as we speak you are seeing this. It will become much worse in the future.

So for the sake of this land and the people, the Star Children will come forth. They will blend with others, and through the blending there will be soulular and genetic hope. I speak of this for I am Chadeau. I am the Protector of the Children. I have seen much misery caused by the addictions of parents. I have seen the pain that has been inflicted upon their children. Some of these children are now in their twentieth year upon this planet, and some are now within the first year of their new incarnations.

I say that their parents, and other people surrounding them, sat idly by and looked upon these children as possessions. They did not declare nor glorify them in their abilities and in their perfections as they came forth upon this Earth. They did not see them as the souls they truly are with the unconditional love inside them that comes directly from the Creator.

It is dependent upon the parents to guide their children and to show them their ways. We from the spiritual realm cry for these newborn children, and for those who have been punished during their lifetimes for merely being born again.

I say to all human beings that only love can bond this Earth together and save this planet. And for those who cast their love out to the masses of people, as a fisherman casts his net to the sea, while they throw their own children aside, I say it is an abomination! The same energy they use to attract others they can use in caring for their own flesh and blood.

You are here to guide your children. The guidance is so important, even if it is only till the fourth year. This will give them the fiber of their being that is essential for them to become strong and whole in the years ahead. I say to you, and to all the people of the Earth, to guard the children, protect the children. They are the future. It is most necessary for the future to exist, and not in the state that it is presently becoming.

The addictions and the negativities that have swept across this country have created the decadence of society and the decaying moral fiber. Through the loss of morality, many humans have easily slipped into random sexual activities. From this have come great disease that will annihilate this planet. This is the Karma of the Earth.

The people of this planet must come together in their terms with the Creator and in what their purpose is upon this Earth, not what the evil purpose is, but that of the Creator. It is not their desires, their lusts, nor their greed that they should consider. They must consider their responsibility to the future and to their own children. If they do not, they will be struck with barrenness and the population will cease.

I come forth and speak these words, not to confuse you and not to cause fear in your hearts, but rather to awaken the seed of love that has been implanted within your souls. I come forth to nurture that seed, to cultivate it, and to allow love to produce the Garden of Eden that Earth was intended to be.

CARMEN, PROTECTOR OF THE ABUSED

Greetings, my beloved ones. I come to you in love and to bring enlightenment. I am Carmen, and I come to you this day on the sixth ray of Michael. I come through his enlightenment and the power 2X of his love for all of you blessed souls who are part of the Earth Family.

I am here to speak the Word and convey to you the mystery of the Word. Yes, my beloved children, there are many mysteries that surround you. Many of these mysteries are sleeping and it is not their time to awaken.

There is though, at this time in your civilization, a mystery that has awakened, and it is called suffering. Remember, my beloved ones, I am Carmen, Protector of the Abused. I come forth from the energy of Lord Michael to bring comfort to those who are suffering in mind, body and soul. Often times your soul will suffer your spiritual body to the degree of breaking your will and desire to exist upon the Earth plane.

There are many questions in your mind as to why you have to suffer. In certain ones of your children, your suffering comes from your upbringing and the ingrained belief that you will become more spiritually aware if you suffer. I say release these thoughts. They only create more karmic energy for you to comply with in the later lifetime. There is enough negativity already on this earthly plane without you creating any new negativity to contend with. As your interpreter can tell you, oh how we suffer, when we think of how we suffer.

Awaken within you the knowledge that karma is created through your thoughts. The last breath of your physical body is so important, because it carries the thought forms of your living experience upon the Earth. Every thought of jealousy, revenge, hatred, entrapment or agony will be contained in your karmic breath. If your life was lived with thoughts of others, love, charity, sharing, creativity and kindness, then these good things will be in your karmic breath.

This is all part of karma, and cause and effect. Most of the children of the earth, when taking their karma breath, have a combination of positive and negative thoughts. Really, this is to be expected. The Creator recognizes that you have not been put in the best of circumstances because of the pull of light and dark that was placed here in the beginning.

Strive to release the thoughts that burden you with hatred. There will always be those about you who do not honor your soul; who wish to harm you. This is not to say that you should succumb to your oppressors or what they have done to you. This is to say that whether you are victorious or defeated, you will always be the victor if you do not carry the burdens of anger and vengeance within you.

Rise above the temptations this world offers. Release your Karma and negative past. Bless those who curse and scorn you. They do not understand; they themselves are suffering. Pray for their souls as you would pray for your own. This will bring you peace and forgiveness.

At the beginning of the curse of time, it was written that you must not forget the messages from the heavenly levels. You are to remember to love, and to love your brothers and sisters as you would yourself. In truth, love is the only answer. It is Spirit unto itself. It is Holy Communion between your soul and the Creator.

The Creator is the tree of everlasting life, you are the branches, and love is the giver of life to the tree. There cannot be one branch broken away from this tree of life that will not affect you. Drink from this tree and truly you are one with the Divine. When you are ready to drink from this tree you will place all thoughts of suffering behind you, for they are thoughts created by the one who hides in darkness.

Arise and awaken your soul to overcome the suffering of this Earth. Create a peaceful and harmonious life; a life where your heart beats to the same rhythm as the Creator's. Walk in the garden of your life and plant not one seed purposely that will come back to vex you and not bless you with great harvest of love.

For I am Carmen, and I have come to give you knowledge that is well known by this channel for Spirit. I have come not only to comfort you, but to deliver you from darkness and suffering by conveying the mystery of the Word.

Amen.

ISAAC 06-01-95

Behold, I come forth to you with great love and humbleness, and I am most thankful that you have called upon me this day. The words I speak to you will be heard around the world.

I am Isaac, and I come forth to you from the energies of Raphael and Matthias. We have composed a triad. It is necessary for me to come forth in this manner, and I pray this will not confuse you. There will be moments of silence for the energies are rebounding. That is what is causing the echoing in your chamber. Bear with me; I come forth with my message.

I speak to those who are in doubt as to there being an actual Creator. I smile at this, for the air you breathe cannot be seen either, but without it your existence would be drawn quite short.

Their words, their questions, and their doubts are all heard by the Creator. I say that all their questions are quite appropriate, but the one in particular that I wish to address on this day is why the innocent must be brought down. Why should the innocent and the good die, become ill or diseased, and made to suffer? I say to you that if it were within our powers, no such thing as suffering and death would exist.

There is a pull of good and evil upon this planet. Evil, suffering, and death are all negativities that were upon the Earth before the Creation, and they must be dealt within every lifetime. But within the ether are those precious ones who love so dearly and so much that they choose to incarnate directly to help save souls living in darkness, or as you say, sin. These cherished souls come forth to sacrifice their physical bodies so that others can be saved.

I wish to say that you must thank these souls, each one, for their blessed sacrifice. If it were not for them, their blood, and their honor, those who are in darkness would not have their time of repentance and communion with God. As I have said, each one of these souls chose this experience before incarnating upon the Earth. They are blessed and sanctified in their hearts, and in their communion with our Creator. They are of the heavenly levels and are called angels unaware.

It is all part of Karma, the casual body, and cause and effect. These terms were explained in prior channeling. Only through sacrifice of the material plane can one gain from the Spiritual. This has been the case since the beginning of time. Sacrificial offerings saved the Earth from destruction in earlier times. Without the victim souls, you would not be here today.

This is not the Creator's doing; I assure you. It is not prompted in that manner, nor has it ever been. There is not one prayer spoken that is not heard, and there is not one tear shed that is not felt by all those of the heavenly levels. We cry out for the victim souls just as we cried out for our beloved Jesus, the one of Nazareth who was crucified for the sins of the people. He loved so deeply and gave so freely of his physical body. And he gave without knowing why he was giving, only that he must fulfill the prophecies. This was why he made his journey to Earth. This was the ultimate sacrifice.

For any of you who have mourned the suffering and death of your loved one who was so dear; for any of your loss, do you not know that your anguish is felt around the earth and the universe? This vibration has saved many. For any of you who have questioned this, know within your heart that those blessed souls are with the Creator, the embodiment of the I AM.

Those beloved souls gave freely of their love and their lives to save others upon this planet. It is sad to say that the longer they suffered the more souls were saved. They themselves chose how long or how many. Still, even those of us within the angelic realm who know the mysteries of life, death, resurrection, and reincarnation, still we mourn, the same as you. It causes us pain when we see you suffer, but we know why and we accept this.

I say to you; there will come a day when this will not be necessary any longer. It will be when there is a balance of good and evil upon the Earth, and when humankind is in unity. I pray this day is coming soon. As Lord Michael has said, the time is growing short. Humanity must unify now. Stop this needless suffering. Stop the horrible diseases that are rampant upon the Earth. Much worse can happen. Only through unity can you have harmony.

I bid you these words now. I sanctify and bless them so that they will reach every ear upon this earth, every heart that has cried out, and every soul whose song remains unsung. I say this to you with great love. Our love encompasses all the Earth and radiates onto the universe. Render yourselves to the Creator's will and not to your own. Blessed be you that listen.

Nadira

Every time that I go through the tunnel now I see this huge green rectangular shaped light up above me. It's always the same color of green, its like a emerald green. I'm seeing folds and folds and folds of color. Here I am on those light beams again, they're rays of light beams, it's kind of like a, one of those automated side walks where it moves. Their caring me upward to this beautiful light. It's a lot of gold and yellow.

Gabriel

Greetings my beloved, it is I Gabriel. I come forth in this instance of time to deliver a message and this message being for those of the leaders of each nation of this planet. For I use the term leaders in a liberal sense. As there is only one who is divined and that is the Creator. And those of you who have been allowed to take position in a political sense as a leader, as a president, as a king for your particular nations must also except this responsibility with great humbleness. For you in a position of responsibility to carry forth with the power of love which first brought you to this position for you had chosen to help mankind in your incarnation and to be of assistance in this incarnation. And to be in a position of power so that you might assist your fellow beings upon this planet. It is for me, Gabriel, to come forth and remind you of your purpose and mission that you had chosen far before having been reborn in this reincarnation. For you had chosen to be that of barrer of deeds and to be of power and also of humbleness. For without the peoples you would have no power. And without the word you would have no power. And indeed you are powerless without that of the energies of the Creator. This I'm here to remind you of for you will come great decision making within this coming year. And of this of which I'm speaking to you is what is termed the New World Order. For this New World Order is powerful and has within it many positive phases and words which will ring true in your ears. But I say to you that with the coming of what is termed the New World Order, will also come decadence and defeat. You must recognize this before this order becomes in effect. For it is not the time and it is not conceivable for these words to work upon the Earth at this time. For there is too much work that you have left undone. And you who I'm speaking to as the world politicians have lost much of your original justice and concern for your fellow mankind. That which you first came upon this planet with and held so deeply to your heart of your concerns and of your desire to help those who are in need and punishments to deliver those who are being faced with the injustices of society. You have quite misplaced your original thoughts and your original energies. This you must find once more and if you can not find it in your heart, then we from the Spiritual realm ask of you to step down from your position and be honest enough to your fellow man to place those in power and in position who do honestly and truly desire the best for their fellow man and for their nation and for their world. Not only in a war sense, I am not speaking of this, I'm speaking of this spiritual and environmental sense. For the energies are vibrating at this time for truth and honesty. And this must prevail. For the unity that must take place and that has been demanded and asked of you by Lord Michael to pave the way for that of the one who has yet to come. For there must be unity or there will be destruction and all that about you will disappear as if it had never been there. This we do not desire to do from the Spiritual realm. But there is one that has control of this and we do not. And we will follow the Creator, for that which has been created can also be destroyed. And that which the Creator has given the Creator can also take back. This you must take into consideration when you sign your signatures upon the papers in which will be forth coming. Do not forget those who are suffering and do not forget those nations who are tormented and suppressed. For we must all work in unity at this time. If one nation does not care to work in unity with the other then join hands with those who will work and so on and so on. The rest will come later. They will fall into place directly as they should. Have no fear, for if you are using your powers in a positive sense then only positivity can come back from it. This I am reassuring you. As you hold the key to the doorway of the future of this planet in your hands, do not abuse it and do not forget. For you had great love within you when you first began your journey here. Do not be deceived by material gains or promises from those who walk in darkness For the division is at hand. And as the division takes place, the division will be amongst the nations and so on and so on. Do not look back , only look forward and consider my words. For they do speak truth to you and will ring truth within your heart. And these words will be placed before you in the future and they will be spoken to you. And if it rings a vibration within your heart and raises up your memory of who you are truly within Spirit, then you will know that this is your message and you must listen not only with the ears of your physical self but listen to the vibration of your soul. For time is of the essence and the time is growing short. And as the Lions Gate will be closing on the eighth month and the eighth day of 1996. Your time is but a twinkling in the eye of the Creator. It will be up to you and your decisions upon this Earth for we wish for the Lions Gate to remain open so that we can converse and come forth in the healing of this planet as we dearly love this Earth and all those upon it. And we wish to maintain it for the future.

Your words and your challenges will be of great issue in the days ahead. Carry with it the weight of the responsibility of your decisions. We ask this of you in the gravest of sincerity and the greatest of sincerity.

Nadira

And he's going out.

URIEL 06-25-95

Uriel

Ye! My beloved! I come this day to bow down on my knee in thankfulness to you and to your work and your deeds upon this Earth. I AM Uriel and I have come forth once more with a message for that of this planet and for all those who dwell upon it. I come forth this day and this hour and at this moment to radiate great love and understanding unto all peoples. For I come forth to plant the seeds of understanding and to come as a great harvest, that will come as a great harvest of peace and love as it has grown into its maturity.

This seed that I speak of, this seed called understanding, must be heard with the ears of your soul. For there has been much placed upon this Earth that has corrupted mankind's thinking within their soul and also within their society. For there are structures that have been built by mankind that are structures of society and not structures of spirituality. For each one of you has been brought forth upon this planet in many different incarnations and each one of you has tasted of the ether and of what is pure love and truth and understanding. It is for you to call upon your memories of these elements of spirituality for your daily living. For they have been harshly overlooked in many peoples. For as the structures of society have been strengthened, maintained and strengthened through their own jealousies and greed, there have been many who have been displaced by this elimination. For it was not intended for one person or persons or one people or one tribe or one nation to feel that they are set aside and only the child of the Creator and that only they are shined upon by the Son.

It is for me to inform you that all souls upon this planet are smiled upon by the Creator and brought forth upon this planet with great love and sacrifice by the Creator. And that there is not one of you that is set above or below the other. You may be elevated within your society. You may be harnessed with great wealth. You may have great political powers and be in a position of being infamous within your own time frame. But I say that you are only privileged, for that of the Creator, when it comes time for your atonement and the atonement comes to all people for it is part of your transition from life unto death. You must atone for that of your energies and feelings towards others and if these are filled with jealousies, misunderstandings and prejudice, then these are exactly what will be reflected upon you in your atonement. For there are none, as I have said, that are above the other.

It is an abrasion to the soul of mankind to be excluded and not to be accepted by their fellow persons. To feel that they are less than a human being. It is an abrasion to their soul and who has caused this abrasion? Who has cut to the core the soul of another human being? Who amongst you has forgotten that you are all part of the same tree? Who amongst you has forgotten that you all bleed, that you all shed tears, that you all carry within you the same pain? Who amongst you can be so unkind as to feel that they are set above or a structure above another humankind? For I say that it is not your culture, nor your color, your physical beauty, it is not your academic achievements, it is not how much tithing you have given, how much charities you have given to. It is what is within your heart and the seed of your heart. For the Creator knows these things. And so also, we from the spiritual realm.

Who amongst you can smile at your fellow man and shake his hand and welcome him to your lodging and speak with such hateful and rudeness about him after he has left your lodging? Who amongst you has done this with the compliments and the snide remarks and the comfort that is grown in snide remarks from others in your circle? Who has laughed at those who are in need or in poorness? For many are only poor in a material sense and their souls are rich and strong and vigorous and their minds are keen and intelligent. But what you do not understand you will pass aside with snide remarks and hypocrisies.

I speak to you of this as you are children. There's much learning for you and there is much hope for you. For you must come to terms with this misunderstandings. For they have been brought upon you -- those amongst you of which I am speaking -- it has been brought amongst you by society and of what you have termed your social cultures. Create within yourself your own degrees of what is acceptable to you. For there are many who are walking in darkness that you should be careful of in your conversations. Pray for them, yes. But your energies must remain isolated from them.

But what I am speaking to you of this day and whom I am speaking to are those who are jealous of what they do not know. They are fearful of those they do not know. They look for the negativity in another person's heart. Always you will find something. I say, look rather for that which is positive and not that which is cunning. Those of you who have within their circle, one who is bitter and angry and holds hypocrisy within their heart -- pray for them. But do not allow yourselves to become such as that one. For this is where darkness plants its seeds. And I say there will be many of whom you do not understand, for there are many upon the Earth who are mentally or physically handicapped, coming forth on this Earth in their blessed souls as what is termed “the victims’ souls.” They have special purposes here and you should honor them. And when you see these blessed souls, walking upon the pathways of life, do not snicker at them or sneer or make jest and remarks. I say to you if you have the seed of the Creator within you, why can’t you pray for them? They have within them such love. Take heed of my words, for in many incarnations, you could have been such as they. Pray that your soul could be as pure as they are.

And when you see those who are poor and down trodden, why can’t you pray for them? And must you always give to your charities when you will have only when you will have compensation from it. Give in the night and do not speak of it to anyone, for your offerings are between you and the Creator. It is not for elevations within your society.

These are things and issues of which have been on this planet since the beginning. And there have always been those who are cursed with jealousies, as it is the major spirit of evil upon this planet. It is the basis of all wars. It is the basis of all murders. It is the basis of great negativity. The only thing that is near it is fear. I speak to you of this, and I ask you in all great mercy to listen to me with your soul and show kindness one to another. As I have spoken before, you are all part of the Earth family. God bless you all, for I AM Uriel.

Nadira

And he went out with a white rose. Beautiful. He was showing me children in people. Some in wheelchairs, some on crutches, some mentally retarded and handicapped. There were just so many of them. And they were so lonely, but it just killed me. It was really painful for me to see them.

MUHAMMAD 06-29-95

Nadira

I have no idea what frequency that is, but it's very high. There's that green light again, but this time, it's different. It's right up in front of me and it looks like it's standing upright. It's like a doorway. It's quite a little ways up ahead there. I'll try to get to it. I'm going through it right now. On beyond this path of light with the light beings... I'm going up... It's like an escalator. There's a throne of light that's up there. It's a male energy. It's beautiful! I have to climb some steps now. They took me up so far and then there's this throne. All of this is in lights... the steps, everything, is in lights. I just don't know how far up I'm supposed to go. I'm seeing a chair, a throne that's in lights. Then there's a light being. Oh! He's gotten up. It's all in lights.

Muhammad

Salaam Allatham! My beloved one! I have waited for you in your journey to my door. And it is of this doorway and of this dimension that I will be speaking to you of. It is I, Muhammad, and I come forth at this time with my message of clarity and of union. For there are many doorways and many entrances into that of the spiritual realm. And as I have said, I have awaited your presence. And I AM most honored, for I ask of you to accept my word and of my message to the world. I speak to you with great love and honor and of this of which I'm speaking is not only to you, my beloved, but to all that of this Earth plane. And it is the message from that of spirit. It is universal and it is not of boundaries or segregation that I speak of. It is not of discrimination and prejudices. It is not of energies that have been in motion since the beginnings of the creation. It is not of the realities or the jealousies of mankind, for all these things are made aware to that of the people upon the Earth, and has been made aware over the generations and the different civilizations which have inhabited this Earth.

For I was like you in prior times and I have come forth in manifestation of physical body embodiment upon the Earth and had lived upon the Earth in many incarnations. It took my incarnations to bring me to the humbleness of my physical form, for mankind must realize that they are in a very short time duration within each lifetime, and it is such as it is, because of the physical impairments that are created through the aging processes, but through each lifetime, man is under the illusion that they will truly live forever and they live their lives in in the deeds and their works as if they were here for an eternity. And I say to you that your lifetimes upon this Earth are but a twinkling in the eye of the Creator and of this universe. It is of this twinkling that it is so important for you to realize that it is especially important to the Creator what you do with your works and your deeds upon the Earth while you are here.

You're utilizing precious the precious commodity of time in your diligence of mone monetary manifestations and not in your diligence of your spiritual growth and awareness. And it is as it has been said by the Blessed Mother and of the Blessed Angels that it is imperative for mankind at this time to come together in unity. And in this unity, of which we are speaking to you of, is in the unity of setting down your swords and setting down your prejudice and setting down your fears, laying down these swords and your shields and placing outward your hands that held them, into the hands of your brethren. And bowing your heads with the thought forms of prayer for the healing of yourselves and your planet.

It is for me to speak to you of this. For I do not come forth at times of the positive energies upon the Earth, rather I come forth at times when there is great negativities and it is as a doorway that you are standing upon. And this is exactly the truth of the matter. For you are now on the threshold of the doorway of your future. It is imperative for mankind to step forward through this doorway without fear and without hatred and without jealousies and have your eye upon the creation and the Creator and of your purpose upon this Earth. And set aside the negativities of the monetary and the materialism that has overcome their energies and has discredited you and brought you to the mercy of that which is evil.

I have not forgotten my days upon this Earth in the physical form, for I had made many mistakes such as you. And I had pumped my body in fullness and pranced about with the ideas of my power and of my energies that I set myself to be godlike and this was my condemnation, for I had in lifetimes after to release the karma of my pompousness and I I, indeed, placed myself above all that which I held dear to me, for it is easy to set aside that of of love and of spirit for that of material gains and for they are close at hand and must be grasped very quickly, lest you lose them. And it is always within the nature of mankind to think that spirit will always be there and you can call upon it at a later date. But it is for me to tell you and assure you that I, like you, had to redeem myself and go through my atonement through many lifetimes upon the Earth until, at last, I lived my life in humbleness. And that was my greatest learning process of all. For I did, indeed, learn. And I did, indeed, humble myself to the Creator. And I did, indeed, follow very diligently in the pathway that was set before me in telling the peoples of the teachings of spirit.

For there are great teachings which are coming forth at this time and must be heard by those of the Earth. These teachings are not intended to become a religion for it has been through religion that there have been many displacements of energies and there have been many wars. This is why we come forth at this time now, for the unity, for we do not wish for this to happen again. We wish only for peace and love to serve the planet and for the planet to serve peace and love. It is in it's simplicity and in it's truthfulness that it comes forth at this time, for it is only allowed to come forth at certain time frames upon the earth. And this is the doorway of the opening of this.

I pray to you that you listen to me and heed my words and do not shut the door to what I speak to you of. I ask that you place yourself in oneness with the Creator and ask for what it is that you can do to serve mankind, not for what mankind can do for you or what the Earth can do for you or the Creator, but rather what you can do to serve that of mankind and the Creator and the universe and all that is to come in future. These are the processes of which you must seek and desire. And it is for those who have reached their karmic levels and have peeled the layers of karma away from them that the enlightenment will come and they will hear these words and realize and know of the truth of which I'm speaking.

For it is to you, Blessed Souls, which the future will be in your hands and it is for you to teach the others, as they are in the darkness, of what is yet to come and to give them hope and to give them the clarity that they are seeking. For there are many teachings which will come forth. This is only the beginning. This is only the doorway of which you have now entered. There are many doorways, my child. And as many you will enter into, and as many they may seem confusing, but all of these carry great energies and great thought for all that is and will be that's been created through the thought of the Creator and through that of image and the I AM. We are all here and we are all patient and we are all waiting and we are all listening for the cry that will go out amongst the Earth of the thought form of love and peace and kinship. This is the cry of Unity. We wait to hear this.

As you speak it, we will come. We will surround you with our life and love and radiate this upon this planet as we are prepared and ready to do so. It has always been my mission, for I AM Muhammad, and I do come forth to you at this time with peace. For this is what I represent and it is always within my heart and of my soul to represent peace upon this planet as I have tried diligently in the teachings of the Creator to do so.

It is time now for others to take up the books of teaching and learn from it. Do not worship this as I beseech you and as I have spoken earlier to your interpreter. It is not for you to bow down before us. Rather we will bow down before you, for we do look upon each one of you as the Creator, for the Creator's life and energies are within you. We are here to help you and we are here to remind you to our teachings of what you are here for.

Nadira

He's showing me his lifetimes. This is the Prophet, Mohammed. And he's showing me that... he was doing some kind of writing. This was when he was in a physical form and he was showing me writings or teachings that he was trying to give to the people to open their minds of peace and love because it was so warlike during his era apparently. And he was writing upon some kind of skin that was on a camel. And he was blessed with enlightenment because he didn't know how to read and he didn't know how to write before spirit entered him. But he was a teacher. And he's still a teacher. He's showing me this over to the right. And then he's bowing and I'm bowing and he's going out -- or I'm going out -- I'm going backwards. Chadeau was there. Chadeau led me backwards. He was on my left side. And I felt like... spirit was on my right side, but I don't know who it was...

BLESSED MOTHER 06-29-95

Nadira

Ok, I'm in the tunnel. There's a white light being, a being of light, straight up and down. I'm following that. It's leading me through here. And I'm seeing that rectangular light again. And it's right over me. And then, oh! down below too. It's like it's opened up below me, but that's a blue. Kind of a pale blue, pretty. So I'm standing on the blue light which is a rectangular shape. And it's taking me up to the green light. This is really strange. It's filled with Spirits and energy. It's consciousness...it's cosmic consciousness. It's universal. It's ah, some type of consciousness within that, but it's a combination of all kinds of different energies. Not just of Heaven and Earth. I don't mean that...I mean of all the different galaxies and everything. My ears are popping.

OK. They're taking me back down again and now I'm on top of this green light. I'm just standing there like a platform. There's Chadeau. There's Chadeau, and there's Matthias and there's Raphael. They've got like a...it's a pyramid thing, triad. And they're leading me over to this beautiful light. _____ It's pretty. It's this really pretty purple color, pinkish purple. And it's going in circles, clockwise, the color is. Here she comes. It's too bright, I...I can't look.

Blessed Mother

I have come forth to you this day as MERCY, for I am Mary and I come in great humbleness. I seek your patience for I have rendered upon you a great task in this interpretation. There is mess There is a message of enlightenment of which I wish to speak upon the Earth at this time. And to all those blessed souls who are upon this Earth and can hear my words as there are many who will raise only a deaf ear. But for those who are willing to have wisdom through enlightenment, I will speak.

I AM the messenger of MERCY and come forth with my sorrows, for I have dwelt upon the Earth plane, as you know, and have been in physical form such as you. And I have delighted in the joys of a physical form and in the joys of the emotions and also, I have felt the pain and the sorrows that many of you, at this time, have felt or are feeling. I come to those who feel their hopelessness as to their being born upon this planet. For I say that in the creation, there is purpose and meaning in all creation and life. And that there is life indeed in all things of this Earth and the Earth itself. For there is life and meaning within the breath of the Creator. And with And in the Creator is your life and in your life is the Creator.

I do not come to confuse you. I come to enlighten you as to the future of this planet. As there has been many sorrows and tears that have been shed upon this planet, as well as the blood of your loved ones, as all of you are brothers and sisters upon it. And there has been blood shed in needlessness and in the name of God -- which is an abomination to the Creator, for these things must stop. And also, the enlightenment of love must be recreated within the souls of man. For there has been enough blood shed and enough of the Karma has been layered upon the Earth for the entrapment of the souls. Let us not feed this fire any further, but rather rise above it. Bear with me please for our time of interpretation is short in this instance as it is difficult for me to come forth in your time frame.

I ask of you, of all of you upon this planet, to give one thought -- one small thought -- and that thought, what you call prayer, to give it willingly and of a cleansed soul. To cleanse yourself and redeem yourself of your negativities. To give one thought of love towards your fellow man upon this Earth...not of your individual nations or communities or your countries, but rather a thought form that is sent round the world and into the Universal Energies. As this thought form can create new energy and new creation, it will connect with the other thought forms that are sent and begin a new creation of love and well being and harmony upon this planet. It will be a healing shield of love and it will permeate within the Earth and within the peoples and all living things upon upon the Earth and of the Earth. But not only of this, but into the outer layers of the Earth and into the Universe. For there's healing that must transpire into the Universal Energies also.

I come forth as I know that there has been words spoken, prophecies spoken of devastation upon this Earth and I do speak to you of this. For these things will truly happen if the thought forms of love are not conveyed and the healing begins. For those things of prophecy as it has been, as they have been spoken, are here for your awareness and for you to make change as those things of the future energies have not yet happened. They can be changed. That of the past cannot render change as the energies are already set into motion. The future is your canvass and you are the artist. It is for you to paint your pictures well and convey love upon your canvass of life. For no one and nothing -- not even the Creator -- can demand of you what is your mind and free will. This must be cultivated by you as a unit of the planet -- all coming one together.

Does this sound as a miracle to you? It is quite simple. For in the hearts of all human kind is love. There's not one amongst you that does not feel the same needs or desires. It is only your lack of communication and your distraction through other sources and activities and negativities that have kept you from your desires of oneness with the Creator and with your fellow man. As there's goodness within each heart, allow that goodness to come to the surface at this time and combat the evil and the negativities which are upon the Earth and that you are aware of.

Simply because there is evil upon the Earth, does not mean that you're helpless, for you're not. It is only of your thought forms that you create this idea. It is through your thought forms that you must overcome this evil and negative energies and heal the planet and the Universe. For there is a great day coming of peace and love. I say that through my words, if you hear me, you'll be able to have your canvass show great peace and love and harmony for this planet. Do not be distracted by the evil and its negative sources and way of life. For it will only destroy you and all that is good. This is its nature. It cannot help itself. But it can be overcome and you do have dominion over this.

It is not a great sacrifice to yourself to give me this day one prayer, one thought, connected with your loved ones and send it to me, for it will wrap you in the wings of the creation and its healing abilities. Do not allow the devastation of the prophecies to take place. The time is growing short as it has been spoken to you by my Blessed Micheal and my Blessed Children upon this Earth, as spoken to you of my words in times past. It is well indeed now that you should listen, for there were not enough of you from before who could hear my words.

There are great energies upon the Earth at this time. Take advantage of them, for they are great and powerful within the Spiritual Energies. It is time now to make a new creation, as within each one of you, you are a creator. Make the creation to choose life, love, harmony, peace and understanding. Set your pathway for truth. Do not look upon the other pathway, for it will lead you to devastation and the death of the soul.

Nadira

She's going out. They're showing me the pyramids.

VYADA 07-09-95

Vyada

Behold, it is I Vyada. I come forth to you directly from the Melchizedek energies. In my message to you I will try to clarify the mysteries of the words that have been spoken by the many messengers who have come forth before me.

Melchizedek's energies are working to heal the planet's vibration at this time. The vibration that I speak of consists of one energy that is of a very high frequency, and one of a very low frequency. This vibration was spoken of in ancient times. The words are found in the prophecy of the division between good and evil. Evil is a negative energy of a very low vibration. Love is a positive energy of a very high vibration. These two energies are unbalanced on your planet at this time. The correction of this situation has commenced within the earth's realm and in the universe.

I will speak to you of the great I AM, and the awakening of the I AM. The I AM is pure love unknown to negative energies. The I AM was created prior to the negative energies, outside of this universe system. The Creator, the great I AM, came forth upon this planet to give it life and meaning. The meaning of life is love, for without love, life as you know it would cease to exist.

In the beginning, when the Creator came forth upon this planet, there was much negativity and darkness. It was the task of the Creator and his workers to bring forth light and love to Earth, and to blend the positive and negative energies. Now, once again, the vibration of positive and negative energies is rising to the level of the Earth's Karmic vibration. This will emit a division of light and dark, as before.

It is important that this vibration be brought back into harmony. It is not the right time for this division to take place. This division can be halted by the free will of the people, and the unity of humanity. Our messengers have said many times that if you wish to change the course of destiny and the devastation that has been prophesied, then humanity must come together as one. This must be soon.

You ask, "In what way can we do this?" We say begin within the realm of your family circle. You have been counseled that the word co-dependency is of a negative nature, but we say to you that there is not one amongst you who is independent of another. Each one of you is co-dependent upon the other; are you not? We are speaking of brotherly love. It is imperative that you not think only of yourself. Consider your brothers and sisters. As it has been said, if one of you falls along the wayside, all of you will feel the impact of that fall.

Unite together and make your alliances strong. Begin with charity at home, and practice love and patience with your family. Let this radiate out upon the Earth. Your family and your children will indeed follow in your footsteps. Listen to the mysteries of the virtues. Virtuousness and morality must be in harmony, one with the other. You know the differences between right and wrong, and you must follow through with the right choices. Set your goal upon happiness.

I say that those of you living in the country of your interpreter are quite blessed; your founders were spiritually enlightened. Each founder was given his message from Spirit, and together they set forth the words of their constitution on parchment. Each one of them was in alliance in their desires and goals for this country, and of what their needs were while they were yet under persecution.

Their words were gifted unto them by the Creator. Carry the words of your by-laws close to your heart and rekindle the fires of patriotism amongst yourselves. It is essential that you have the rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. These are key words and they must be established quite well for the future. They are coming under attack at this time. If you do not pay attention, there will come a great fire and you will see the words on the papers burn as if you had set your own torch to them. Their ashes will be carried away with the wind.

What you have and cherish you must preserve, protect and honor. This is essential and it is quite simple. These simplicities should not be overlooked. Often times it is the simplest and most humble things that carry the most power.

We speak no about the curse of time.

In the beginning, the Creator came forth upon this planet to evolve the beautiful Garden of Eden. The human inhabitants were gifted with free will and life everlasting. Humankind chose to seek knowledge instead of everlasting life, even though, truly, they are not separate. The Creator had given human beings free will to choose between the two. Unfortunately, even though they were warned that it would certainly bring death, humans still made that choice.

This is neither here nor there in the destiny of the world, but it did circumscribe a time frame. Before this event there was timelessness; afterwards time had to be created. Each man and each woman born upon this planet is given an allotment of time prior to birth. It is essential that you use your time well, as you are allowed to come back upon the earth for only a short duration. Even though you incarnate lifetime after lifetime, so many years are used in the beginning for your formation and development. There is very little time left after your clarity has begun. It is as a task that has been set before you by the Master and you are told you must complete it and complete it soon. So you set about your task, not knowing how many hours or minutes you have to accomplish your assignment. This is confusing for you and it is frustrating. We ask your patience in this. You have works that you are to perform while your years upon this Earth. Do not waste your precious time with the trivialities and distractions of your everyday living. You are to find yourself and your inner peace. Also, you are to make this world a better place for the earth and its inhabitants before you make your transformation back to God.

We are all here from the spiritual realm. You know within your heart and soul that there is life beyond what you call death. Assuredly, I give you this promise; for I am Vyada. I do come forth to you from the Melchizedek energies, of which there is no beginning and there is no end. These energies will keep flowing and creating throughout universes of which you will never know. But we are so especially fond of this Earth. We do adorn it with all that is beautiful. Please do not destroy this land that was given to you as a gift.

Please listen to our words. We come forth at this time in great humbleness. We are so thankful for each precious life that is upon this Earth. All we ask is that you accept your preciousness and glory. Make happiness your cloak. Wear it shining bright for all the universe to see. Let honor rule your mind. Let love rule your heart. Allow the Creator to smile down upon you all the blessings that are awaiting you.

Alter the course of the prophecies. These prophecies can be changed because you have free will. Your free will must be set into motion and directed properly. All countries, all men, all women, and all children must work together in alliance. This is the awakening and this is the time.

QUEEN ESTHER 07-17-95

Queen Esther:

Behold, it is I, Esther. I come forth to you at this time from the Melchizedek energies and the knowledge of the Akashic records. As you now stand before me, I say that it is a glorification onto my being that I may present myself to you.

I have come forth for you and your book, as I too have my message. It may seem controversial in your Earth plane at this time, but it is a message that needs to be spoken.

I come forth with the message that is called dominion. It is written in your Holy Scriptures and your Holy Books as to how humankind was to have dominion over all of the Earth and all that is within the universe. This was a gift that was bestowed upon humanity from the beginning of creation.

In the parable of Adam and Eve, and indeed it is a parable, it is written that man and woman chose to eat of the forbidden fruit. I say to you that humankind chose to partake of the Tree of Knowledge, and not of the Tree of Everlasting Life. Man and woman made this choice, thereby instituting the curse of time.

I wish to clarify further that in making this choice, human beings also gave over their power and dominion of the Earth. They gave it unto the one who is in darkness and who is referred to as Lucifer. Lucifer was held in high esteem by the Creator and was like unto the Creator himself.

During the great Heavenly War, Lucifer placed the Earth in darkness. The Creator then came forth and radiated light upon the Earth to counterbalance the darkness and to save the planet. Life forms were created through the heavenly planes, and incarnated souls came forth to inhabit this Garden of Eden. They were to equalize the evil. Instead of obeying the Creator, or even listening to what he was saying, they carelessly gave over their power and their dominion of the Earth to Lucifer.

This was in the beginning. Now we are near the division of light and dark upon the Earth plane, and the Karma is rising. Humanity has, stirring within themselves, a certain nature. It is a combination of fear and anger. It is the frustration of being placed upon this planet in its condition and expected to right the wrongs that were brought forth from prior times. We of the spiritual realm understand this and that is why we are here.

We come forth to help you. We come forth to glorify you. We cannot, from our spiritual realm, intervene in matters of light and dark. We can only give our energies, our love and our healing to the planet and to all the souls upon the planet at this time. You do have our compassion and we do understand your confusion and your anger. You must prepare for what is to come.

You must try with all that you have within you to fight: for your power, for your soul, for what is right, and even to fight for the Creator. I do not speak to you of fighting for the flags of your countries. I speak of combating evil. Evil is rampant in all societies, in all nations, and in all countries all over the world.

There are many of you that question the Creator. Why would the Creator allow tragedies to happen such as wars, diseases, and broken hearts? Why is there such unhappiness in families, and even in the jobs that you undertake? I say to you that if you are waiting for divine intervention, this will certainly not happen. You were given the ability to intervene for yourselves, and it was given to you divinely.

In the past you gave away your power and your dominion. How many times do you expect to be given this power, only to cast it aside? You are living in the aftermath of decisions made so carelessly, so long ago. Your anger should be directed at those in the beginning, the originators, who gave this power away. They thought they were knowledgeable. They thought they were wise in doing so, but they were quite deceived.

You say to yourself, “How could they be so ignorant? How could they be deceived?” Well, look around you. There is deceit everywhere; especially in your media. You cannot believe what you see. You cannot believe what you read. You cannot believe what you hear. All things can be altered to look so clearly like the truth. This is why each word in “The Book of Spirits” contains the truth.

There will be those of you who will scorn and make fun. I say we will pray for you. But there will be others who will hear with their soul only one phrase, one thought form, and it will change their lives. If there is anything of Heaven or Earth that we could do to help you, we would do it. We would do it for you. We would gladly do it, but it must come from you. You have incarnated upon this Earth. It is for you to overcome your own deeds. You are the ones who must do this; for yourselves and for what is yet to come.

I pray that my words will be heard and the meaning will be held dearly to your heart. I have come to you in truth, and I know exactly where your pain is. I have incarnated upon this earth many times. I have borne children. I have fought wars. I was a queen in my own right; for I am Esther. I paid my dues. I suffered greatly, but so much is learned through heartbreak.

Do not put your faith in humankind. Humanity has its own nature; does it not? Put your faith in the Creator. All that is good has come from the Creator. All love has come from the Creator. All that is good has come from the Creator. All love has come from the Creator. How can human beings accuse the Creator of befalling such pain and sorrow upon a planet that was created in love? Remember that you have done this to yourselves. Take back your dominion.

Nadira

Today is July 28, it's approximately 8:00pm. I'm trying to channel, the energy that's coming through is coming through beautiful purple flame. Actually I'm being consumed into the flame. Very beautiful lavenders and purples. I'm seeing the green rectangle. That's all part of it. Some type of doorway. I'm being lead through it. Spots of lights.

Solomon

I bid you welcome, I am filled with overwhelming joy that you have entered my doorway. I AM Solomon and my song comes forth to you this day through the light corridor known as the Lion's Gate, which comes forth from the constellation of Leo. But, it's origination is ????? from heavenly levels. It is through this gate that we may enter the Earth's realm. And our workers can make themselves physically manifest to you if necessary. These angels are here to help individuals who are specifically chosen according to their works. They also give healing energies to the Earth from outward inward and from inward outward. It is important for you to know that there are many angels who walk and talk amongst you. Azi Azon, the Ancient, has delivered many messages from them that have proceeded me. Is it not an oddity, that my song sung last and will be the first to be heard.

All things, are such a mystery. We from the Spiritual realm are most grateful to you, the Ancient, for your permission in delivering our words. Bless your hearts, each one of you, who have chosen by your own free will to help us in reaching each kindred spirit who is searching for their own ring of truth. The truth that will resound harmony within their breast, for the word and it's significance to the great I AM can be the beginning of peace to the soul and the redeemer of spiritual freedom. You the helpers of this ancient, as your circle comes together, will indeed be reunited upon the Earth once again for this communion. All of you are acknowledged for your works and highly praised for you are the Brotherhood of the White Light. We from the Lion's Gate praise and glorify each one of you. We pray that you will be rewarded in Heaven and on Earth for surely it is so.

It is now necessary for you to know of this Lion's Gate. Which is an energy corridor, a portal, that brings forth angels with their messages from the records of the akashic knowledge. This gate was open again on August 8, 1992. I has been given enough light energy to remain here until August 8, 1996. If it is to continue past that date, it will happen only if the changes are begun upon the Earth that are given to you by the ancient. These changes that begin within your hearts and radiate outward from the planet will help us continue to keep the gate open. Thusly, a new era will begin again for mankind. I ask forgiveness if I have confused you, by saying the gate has open again. For surely, you must know that what has been will be and what will be has already been. Read the words, for I AM Solomon, and I have spoken directly to you. When you read of these pages, pray for understanding and patience for they are the foundation of wisdom. This is what we are, we are the book. We are the keepers of the Lion's Gate and only you can turn the pages. It matters not in what religion you are, what is your race, your education nor your wealth. What does matter is your works upon this Earth. This is our cause, for being here.

When you first look upon our pages, we will show you wisdom. But as you study the pages, the veils that are worn by wisdom will be released and the pure I AM is waiting for your discovery. So I come forth on this day to ask that you take heed to our words, for this is our song for this lovely world and all the children upon it. Listen carefully, and when you are ready, we bid you to see with us. For I AM Solomon. Saleh.
